

FRUIT CROP CERTAIN TO BE BOUNTIFUL ONE

People Have Plans Laid To Get Away From Use of Sugar In Canning—Evaporation Substituted.

The Georgetown (Ohio) News-Democrat says: The general impression is that there will be a larger fruit crop this season than there has been the past few seasons. Even cherries, which were said to have been destroyed, are going to make more than a half crop. Where bloom appeared after the frost it is found alive. Some people say that a second bloom has appeared upon their trees which is for making fruit. Apples and peaches are a heavy bloom, while small fruit have a satisfactory prospect.

People are already discussing how this coming crop shall be made ready for winter use without being compelled to use sugar. For a time the price of sugar made a condition which prohibits preserving but many have decided that what they need will be dried. They are familiarizing themselves with the best methods for drying this fruit. Wherever possible canning will be undertaken by the cold water process and this, with the evaporation process, means that there will be enough fruit made ready for winter use, even though sugar continues at the unreasonable prices which are now asked.

GEORGE LOWE FOUND IN BROWN COUNTY

Prominent Brown County Farmer Died of Heart Disease While Plowing On His Farm.

George W. Lowe, aged 60, a well-known farmer of Brown county, was found dead in a field on his farm Thursday by his brother, T. B. Lowe. The deceased lived alone and Milton Stiers went to his place Thursday morning to see him on some business, and not finding him at home, started to look for him when he was joined by Lowe's brother, who later found him lying in a newly-plowed field where he had fallen the day before as he had been seen plowing there by neighbors. The team was found some distance away, with part of the harness gone. There were indications that Lowe had the reins around his shoulders when he overcame.

LOCAL PICTURES AT THE WASHINGTON TONIGHT.

Manager Russell, always on the lookout for something better than he had before with which to please his patrons, has an added attraction at the Opera House tonight that is a hum-dinger and should draw a big crowd. He will show pictures of the Marksbury trial, having numerous scenes of that sensational affair, and will also show the recent bicycle parade that was given here, together with the Maysville monthly picture. These, with the regular picture, Anita Stewart in "The More Excellent Way," and a good comedy, should give him a packed house at both shows.

FORMER LOCAL YOUNG LADY TO WED AT AN EARLY DATE

Engagement and Approaching Marriage of Miss Edna R. Dawson and Mr. Dana Helme Chappelear Is Announced.

The Portsmouth (Ohio) Times in a recent issue announces the engagement of Miss Edna R. Dawson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Dawson, formerly of this city, to Mr. Dana Helme Chappelear, of Zanesville, Ohio. Many of our readers will be interested in reading the following as Miss Dawson is well known in this city:

"The engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Edna R. Dawson and Mr. Dana Helme Chappelear of Zanesville was announced at an evening bridge party given by her sisters, Mesdames J. F. Russell and Walter Gableman, at the home of the former, 1502 Jackson street, Monday evening. The living room was made beautiful with graceful festoons of solera and dogwood, while pink potted plants and bowls of valley lilies were used in the dining room to carry out the color-scheme of pink and white. The guests included the special friends of the bride-elect, who enjoyed the game of bridge during the early part of the evening, after which they were invited to the dining-room, where the table was aglow with pink Killarney roses in the center, surrounded by soft pink shaded candles. Above this, radiating from the chandelier, a festive effect was formed by the streamers of pink and white tulle terminating at each place, which carried the interesting announcement on the rose-decorated place cards: Dawson-Chappelear—June 16, 1920. The bride-elect was showered with congratulations and well wishes by those present. Favors at the two-course luncheon were baskets of roses, which made each place distinctive.

"Miss Dawson is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Dawson of Jackson street, and is one of the popular teachers at the Garfield building. She is a graduate of the local High School and attained an A. B. degree at the Hollins College, Hollins, Va. "Mr. Chappelear is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chappelear of Zanesville, where he is associated in business with his father, who represents a tractor company, selling these and other motor supplies for the farm. Mr. Chappelear enlisted in the aviation corps during the war and was stationed at Dayton."

DYNAMITE CAP HELD BY BOY EXPLODED

Lewis County Lad's Hand Terribly Mutilated—Says He Got the Cap From a Schoolmate.

The Vanceburg Sun says: "Sunday about 3 o'clock Noble, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Prater, of Southern avenue, had his left hand terribly mutilated, when a dynamite cap exploded in his hand. Not knowing the nature of the cap, he held a lighted match to it, which set it off with disastrous results to himself. Drs. Henthorne and Foreman were called and placed the lad under an anesthetic and then removed the torn shreds of flesh and dressed the wound.

The main force of the charge took effect at the base of the middle finger, which will no doubt be stiff, (if not amputated) and possibly the fingers on either side of it. It is to be hoped that that dreaded infection tetanus (lock jaw) does not set up. It is said he was given the cap by a school mate. Parents had better see to it that their children do not handle so dangerous an explosive. We learn that last fall Miss Im Sanders swept one of the caps up off the floor at home with sweepings and threw all in the coal bucket. Later a shovel of coal carried with it the cap and shortly an explosion tore a hole in the stove.

POPULAR COUPLE TO WED TONIGHT.

The bride is one of this city's popular young ladies, and the Ledger joins their numerous friends in hearty congratulations.

THE SURRENDER OF CARRANZA IS REPORTED

Said To Have Given Up With 800 of His Troops—Announcement Is Made In New York.

New York, May 15.—General Carranza and 800 men have surrendered to the forces surrounding them in the Mexican mountains, according to word received here today by way of Nogales. This information was given out by Manuel de la Pena, self-styled commercial attaché in this city of the new Liberal Mexican government. He said he had received his information from Alfonso Abanda of the Mexican Bureau of information at Nogales.

LOOK WHAT'S HERE!

AND AT WHAT PRICE! The M. T. Russell Company today received a car of 60,000 pounds of the best granulated sugar on the market, which is good news; but here comes better talk. This sugar will be sold to merchants at $24 per hundred, about 10 cents below the present price. If Barb will only get a couple carloads more with 10 off each then we can look the fruit canning season in the face and say: "Come on, we're ready." Another car of 78,864 pounds arrived over the L. & N. for the same firm today. This shipment came from Porto Rico, the first carload of sugar ever received here from that country. As all this sugar will be sold at $24 per hundred to merchants, they had better get busy and lay in a supply.

THREE LICENSE ISSUED.

Three marriage licenses were granted by County Clerk J. J. Owens today. Alva Hofer, 35, and Pearl Hughes, 28, both of this city, to be married by Rev. Reed.

LAST LIVERY HORSE TAKEN FROM SERVICE

Georgetown, Ohio, Nov. 15 Without a Single Horse For Hire, For the First Time In Its History.

"Old Aunty," the last livery horse in Georgetown, was sold by Mr. W. R. Waters last Saturday, leaving the town without a livery horse for the first time in its history. Georgetown in years past was one of the best points for the livery business in the county, supporting four and five livery stables, keeping horses for hire. Travelling men were conveyed regularly to points in the three counties, many trips taking them to even the neighboring counties across the river.

Those who remember the years gone by tell of the great pride taken by those conducting livery business, in the outfits which were turned out. The number and class of horses, and the style of conveyance was a matter of great pride. Beside this there was the sleighing equipment. At the Waters barn, which now has disposed of the last horse, there are those who can remember when upon the second floor the row of sleighs kept reached entire-round the building. They rented in the sleighing season for one dollar an hour, which means when compared with now, five dollars an hour.

But all of this has changed. People commenced demanding quicker transportation facilities with the coming of the automobile. Here and there garages sprang up. Livery barns closed their doors and quit. The price of feed advanced and Mr. Waters stated that by actual calculation it cost $1.15 per day to keep a horse in the livery barn. For this reason he sold "Old Aunty."—News-Democrat.

MANY POSITIONS ARE NOW OPEN TO DISABLED SOLDIERS

Government Offers Employment to Men Who Have Been Partially Disabled in World War.

Through the Service and Information Branch of the General Staff it is announced that there are several thousand civil positions under the War Department now open for discharged soldiers partially disabled from wounds or diseases incurred in the war.

For some months past Secretary of War Baker, acting in conjunction with the Federal Board for Vocational Training and the Civil Service Commission, has been working on a plan whereby the War Department might provide for the partially disabled soldiers under its own jurisdiction. This plan has now been worked out, and is fully described in Bulletin No. 12, just published.

Congress has already provided that in making appointments to clerical and other positions in the executive branch of the Government preference shall be given to honorably discharged veterans and their widows or wives. This statute does not exempt applicants from the usual examinations under the Civil Service, but they will be required to attain an average percentage of only 65 in order to become eligible for appointment, while others must make at least 70.

Age limitations are also waived for veterans; they will be released from all height and weight requirements, except for the positions of guard and watchman; they will be certified for appointment in the War Department at Washington without regard to the apportionment of appointments among the states and territories; and after passing the necessary examination, they will have their names placed on a register ahead of those not entitled to preference.

Quoting from the new bulletin: "The War Department, the Federal Board of Vocational Education, and the Civil Service Commission will cooperate to facilitate in every way possible the employment under the War Department in the District of Columbia and elsewhere, of partially disabled soldiers on an equal basis with those who have not sustained physical injury."

"To become eligible for permanent appointment the partially disabled soldier must qualify through the usual examination in the same manner that is required of other persons seeking employment in the classified Civil Service. Having so qualified, he is entitled to the preference in appointment."

The following defects will not bar veterans from examination, but may prevent appointment to a particular position: Paralysis or epilepsy, not serious in degree; loss of both arms or legs; loss of arm and leg; badly crippled or deformed hands, arms, feet or legs; locomotor ataxia; cancer; Bright's disease; diabetes; defective hearing.

Where physical examinations are necessary, Army surgeons when practicable will make them without charge.

Some of the positions under the War Department in which partially disabled soldiers may be employed are those of stenographer, typist, clerk, file clerk, messenger, watchman, multi-graph operator, mimeograph operator, blue printer, skilled laborer, foreman of laborers, packer, sign painter, electrician, carpenter, painter, checker, elevator operator, storekeeper, time-keeper and the like.

Information as to the positions and their locations may be obtained from any office of the War Department, the Civil Service Commission, or the Federal Board for Vocational Education. Application blanks may be had from and district secretary of the Civil Service Commission. They have their offices in the postoffice or customs house in each city in the United States that has free delivery mail; or full particulars and blanks may be had by writing direct to the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C.

WHY LIBERTY BONDS ARE LOW AND THE COST OF LIVING HIGH

Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Gives Some Reasons For High Price of Commodities.

Why Liberty Bonds are low and prices of commodities are high was authoritatively explained recently before the Academy of Political Science by R. C. Leffingwell, assistant secretary of the Treasury. At this critical moment, he said, many of the people have turned gamblers and wasters. For plain living and high thinking he has substituted wasting and bickering. We enjoy high living while we grumble at the high cost of living—of silk stockings and shirts for the poor, of automobiles for the profiteer and the plutocrat.

"For five years," he continued, "the world has been consuming more than it produced, living upon its capital and the governments of the world have been issuing evidences of indebtedness to represent the wealth destroyed. This has caused world inflation of prices."

"When they were issued, no one could foresee the probable course of the market for Liberty Bonds and Victory Notes in the future with any degree of confidence."

"A year ago, it was freely predicted by financial authorities that Victory Notes would shortly go to a premium and that Liberty Bonds would be selling at or near par within a year of two."

"Everyone knows why these sanguine expectations have not been realized. With the armistice and still more after the Victory Loan, our people underwent a great reaction. Those who had bought Liberty Bonds as a matter of patriotism but not as investors began to treat their bonds as so much spending money. Those who had obeyed the injunction to borrow and buy Liberty Bonds ignored the complementary injunction to save and pay for them."

"A $50 bond in the hands of a patriotic spendthrift was to him a $50 bill to be spent Saturday night or to her a new hat and if the $50 bill turned out to be a $45 bill, small matter. This was the first and most immediate cause of depreciation of Liberty Bonds affecting them particularly."

"I doubt whether higher rates of interest on Liberty Bonds which would have meant more taxes for the taxpayer and more spending money for the bondholder, would have had any other effect than to increase the inflation which has been rampant since the Victory Loan. Some critics say that the Treasury should have foreseen the after-the-war reaction and in order to protect bondholders from the consequences of their own acts, issued the bonds and notes at rates of interest which would insure a market price for them at or near par even in the period of reaction."

"This is inflationist doctrine. The bonds and notes were never meant to be treated as spending money. The Civil War gave us our fill of interest bearing currency. Depreciation in market prices serves as a check upon those who wish to spend their bonds. In the history of finance, no device was ever evolved so effective for procuring saving as the Liberty Loan campaign. There was no plan of financing the war or of financing the period of readjustment which would protect the holders of the government's securities or the government's credits against subsequent folly and waste."

"Instead of telling the people frankly and boldly that prices are high because they are wasting, we fix prices and prosecute profiteers in order that the people may buy more and pay less. Instead of telling the people that Liberty Bonds have depreciated because they are treating their Liberty Bonds as spending money, we clamor that the rate of interest upon the bonds is too low and urge a bonus to bondholders disguised as a refunding operation."

A THOROUGH TEST

One To Convince the Most Skeptical Maysville Reader.

The test of time is the test that counts. Doan's Kidney Pills have made their reputation by effective action. The following case is typical. Maysville residents should be convinced.

The testimony is confirmed—the proof complete.

Testimony like this cannot be ignored. Mrs. John Burns, W. Second St., Maysville, says: "I was subject to severe spells of backache and other kidney trouble. They would come on every three or six months and there were times when I was confined to bed and rendered helpless. The quick and decided benefit I received from Doan's Kidney Pills was wonderful. I have never had such severe attacks since."

NO TROUBLE SINCE Nearly thirteen years later, Mrs. Burns said: "I have the same good words of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills today as ever. I haven't needed a kidney medicine since I took them."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Burns had. Foster-McBarn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

"High rates of interest and discount, limitations of currency and credit, these and all other traditional methods should be used courageously but they will not suffice under abnormal world conditions now prevailing. We must get together, stop bickering and face the critical situation as we should a foreign war. We must cut government expenditures to the quick, abjure bonuses and realize promptly upon all salable war assets. Above all we must work and save. We must produce more but more important still, we must consume less."

The retention of Liberty Bonds and their purchase at present market prices and the safeguarding of savings by means of government savings securities are advocated by the Treasury Department as sure methods of rectifying the economic conditions. Mr. Leffingwell outlines above.

GLAD TO TESTIFY

Says Watoga Lady, "As To What Cardui Has Done For Me, So As To Help Others."

Watoga, W. Va.—Mrs. S. W. Gladwell, of this town, says: "When about 15 years of age, I suffered greatly... Sometimes would go a month or two, and I had terrible headache, backache, and bearing-down pains, and would just drag and had no appetite. Then... it would last... two weeks, and was so weakening, and my health was awful."

My mother bought me a bottle of Cardui, and I began to improve after taking the first bottle, so kept it up till I took three... I gained, and was well and strong, and I owe it all to Cardui. I am married now and have 3 children... I have never had to have a doctor for female trouble, and just resort to Cardui if I need a tonic. I am glad to testify to what it has done for me, so as to help others."

If you are nervous or weak, have headaches, backaches, or any of the other ailments so common to women, why not give Cardui a trial? Recommended by many physicians. In use over 40 years. Begin taking Cardui today. It may be the very medicine you need.

The Million Dollar Wild Animal Serial

"THE LOST CITY"

Of the African Jungle in 15 Sensational Episodes. It startles, thrills, surprises, bewilders and mystifies

GEM

WILD ANIMAL PICTURE THE CIRCUS OF THE SCREEN

Magnitude of This Wonderful Film Must Be Seen To Be Realized.

If the circus may be said to be "The Greatest Show On Earth," then it may truthfully be stated that "The Lost City" is "The Great Film of the Screen." For "The Lost City," a fifteen-episode production, starring Miss Juanita Hansen, George Chesbro, and a big cast of favorite players, goes the circus one better—in fact, several better. This sensational serial will begin its run at the Gem theater, on May 20 and 21.

Deep into the jungle went the daring company of players to enact the scenes of this thrilling and intensely adventuresome story, braving the very jaws of death in their determination to picture the terrifying dangers of these strange lands, uncivilized peoples and ferocious beasts. So while introducing all of the wild animals usually found with the bigger circus, "The Lost City" pictures them in their native haunts, and for the most time unfettered and free.

Hazardous indeed was the venture of the big company, but the story called for realism, and this could hardly have been possible with caged or tamed animals; hence the trip into the jungle itself, to tempt the many beasts to display their natural ferocity before the camera while the actors and actresses portrayed the many scenes of the exciting story.

To the beautiful and equally courageous Juanita Hansen, who enacts the role of the Lost Princess, must be given a great share of the credit for the realism of this wonderful story, for it was to her that the story called for the most daring chances; and that she met the test again and again in scenes that must have seemed for more real than any spectator who views them can imagine, is monumental testimony to her courage and nerve—the more noteworthy because of the fact that she is but a mere slip of a girl.

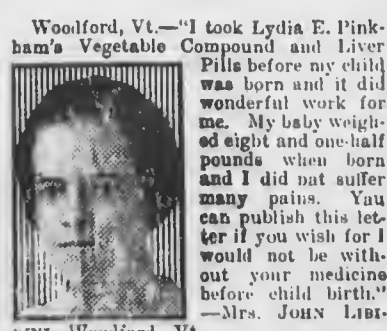

To deliberately place herself within reach of ferocious, untamed lions and leopards, trusting entirely to the ability of another person to lasso a springing leopard in its mid-air flight before it could fasten its claws and teeth upon her, must call for more than mere ordinary courage, and one cannot fail to share the thrill that must have been hers when this sensational scene is shown in one of the many episodes of this most unusual screen drama.

One thing is certain, "The Lost City" will grip and hold any audience because it possesses that element of curiosity, as well as sensation, that makes one intensely anxious to know the outcome of each episode, and because of this and the big manner in which it has been produced, there can be no doubt of its being an absorbing and thrilling entertainment for all.

Excepting Van Buren, Buchanan, and Cleveland—during his first term—all the Presidents were married at the time of their election.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

This is a Short Letter, but it Brings a Message of Importance to every Woman.

Woolford, Vt.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills before my child was born and it did wonderful work for me. My baby weighed eight and one-half pounds when born and I did not suffer many pains. You can publish this letter if you wish for I would not be without your medicine before child birth."—Mrs. JOHN LEE.

First, Woolford, Vt.

The reason why Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so successful in overcoming woman's ills is because it contains the tonic, strengthening properties of good old-fashioned roots and herbs, which act on the female organs. Women from all parts of the country are continually testifying to its strengthening, curative influence, and as it contains no narcotics or harmful drugs it is a safe medicine for women.

If you want special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read, and answered by women only.

KENTUCKY GIRL AT BOOTH HOSPITAL

Declares Her Life Was Saved at Salvation Army Memorial Hospital in Covington.

Not long ago a Louisville young woman was given up for dead by prominent physicians. They pronounced it cancer. Through the Salvation Army this young woman was taken to the Booth Memorial Hospital at Covington, conducted by the Salvation Army. For more than two hours leading surgeons of Covington and Cincinnati operated on this young woman while her faithful friend of the Salvation Army corps stood by to wipe her back to consciousness.

Today this young woman is alive and well and holds a fine position in a Cincinnati office. She declares that she owes her life to Booth Memorial Hospital, the surgeons and the faithful workers.

One object for which the Salvation Army's Home Service Appeal in Kentucky, May 10 to 20, is to be conducted is to raise money for an extension to this hospital so badly needed. Kentucky in every part of the state are justified in giving to this fund because all Kentuckians are welcomed to Booth Memorial Hospital whether they have money or not. No person is turned away on account of a lack of funds.

Booth Memorial Hospital holds the record of caring for more charity patients than any other hospital in the United States. A training school is a part of the hospital work, and during the influenza epidemic many Salvation Army nurses were sent out into various sections of Kentucky and rendered valuable service.

"IN THE DAY'S NEWS."

Henry L. Doherty, of New York City, who celebrates his fiftieth birthday today, is known as one of the largest operators of public utility companies in America. Mr. Doherty grew up in Columbus, O.; worked as an office boy, and ultimately got recognition for business ability that has made him very wealthy, as he has gained control of a large number of utility companies in Wisconsin, Texas, Colorado, Minnesota, Ohio and other states. His inventive ability and mastery of the technique of the manufacture of electricity and gas have added him in his ventures as a capitalist, and also have won for him high honors in the group of experts who serve as manufacturers of light, heat and power. In 1898 Mr. Doherty was the recipient of the first Beall gold medal awarded by the American Gas Light Association for a paper on the use of gas as fuel.

The names of none of those prominently mentioned in connection with the presidential nominations this year contain the "lucky 13" letters. Presidents who names contain the mystic number of letters are Andrew Jackson, James Knox Polk, Zachary Taylor, James Buchanan, Andrew Johnson and Woodrow Wilson.

No naval man has ever held the Presidency, while fourteen of the Presidents were at one time or another connected with the army.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Covington, Kentucky, May 10th, 1920.

For some time past it has been known to many of my Republican friends throughout the state that I would be a candidate for the Republican nomination for United States Senator.

I now desire to make public announcement of that fact.

I keenly appreciate the responsibility and importance of this high position, and, in the event of my election, I will give to the duties of this office the best there is in me and will represent the people of Kentucky and of the United States to the best of my ability.

I desire, also, to take advantage of this opportunity to express my sincere thanks to the many Republicans throughout the state who have, without solicitation on my part, so kindly and generously offered me their support.

RICHARD P. EHNST.

In their aspirations for the Presidency, Leonard Wood, Miles Poindexter, and Hoke Smith may find ground for encouragement in the prevailing absence of middle names among those chosen to the highest office, no fewer than thirteen Presidents having been so blessed.

At the time of the first inauguration of President Lincoln there were five former Presidents living—more than at any other period in the history of the nation.

"WHAT'S THE USE?" DO YOU FEEL THAT WAY

If Something's Taken All the Joy Out of Life, Maybe It's Your Blood
YOU NEED MORE RED BLOOD

It isn't Normal to be Listless and Depressed. Pepto-Mangan, Famous Tonic, is What You Need.

Tell a doctor you're constantly tired out, blue, and discouraged. If there's nothing more serious the matter, he knows you're run-down — that your blood isn't giving your body the nourishment it ought. And he recommends a good tonic.

Good food and a fair appetite aren't enough. The food must become healthy red blood. Your blood in turn nourishes and revives your body—keeps the mind keen, the body vigorous—brings happiness and health.

If you aren't feeling as well as you might—if you seem to have lost all your energy, interest, and enthusiasm—why not try a bottle of Pepto-Mangan, the famous tonic that so many physicians recommend for anemia (bloodlessness)? It's safe, pleasant, and convenient to take. Can be had in either liquid or tablet form—equally effective.

Guide's Pepto-Mangan can be gotten at any drug store, but—be sure you get the genuine. Look for the name "Guide's" on the package.—Adv.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON MAY 16, 1920. Topic: Victory Under Samuel. 1 Sam. 7:12-17. REV. J. J. DICKEY.

Israel had not been under the domination of the Philistines for twenty years. Samuel, in the mean time, had grown to manhood and had risen to the head of the nation. The people, weary of servitude, longed for deliverance from their oppressors. Their miserable condition led them to think upon their ways, and then they began to "lament after the Lord." At this juncture Samuel reminded them that if they wanted the help of the Lord in their material affairs they must turn from their sins. "God is angry with the wicked every day." They must quit their idolatry "and return to God with all their hearts, and serve Him only," before God would come to their rescue.

This is God's rule today, with the nations and with individuals. Samuel called representatives of the nation together at Mizpah, and held a great revival. The people confessed their sins and Samuel prayed for them. The Philistines mobilized their army and came forth for battle. The Israelites were frightened and begged Samuel to pray for their safety. Samuel offered a burnt offering and continued to cry unto the Lord. It seems they were not prepared to meet the Philistine army. So the Lord thundered with a great thunder on that day upon the Philistines and discomfited them, and they were smitten before Israel. When the first decisive battle was fought, in France, with great odds against the Allies, General Kitchener remarked: "Somebody has prayed."

Great prayers make great leaders. There is a God who hears prayer and gives deliverance, when men turn to Him with penitence. Samuel ruled Israel forty years, but the Philistines troubled them no more, during his administration.

The lesson is plain. National security is found alone in divine protection. "Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord."

MANUFACTURERS TO HOLD SILVER JUBILEE MEETING

Will Start the Convention With the Final Shaping of Platform for Industry.

New York, May 15.—The twenty-fifth annual convention — the Silver Jubilee—of the National Association of Manufacturers of the United States, will open Monday morning at the Waldorf-Astoria.

Preliminary to the general sessions of the three-day conference attended by leading manufacturers of the country, the platform committee, composed of delegates appointed by each individual state, will meet to whip into final shape for presentation to the convention as a whole Tuesday night the "Platform for American Industry." More than 5,000 manufacturers of the country, employing above 6,000,000 workers, will endorse this platform and forward it to the dominant political parties in their conventions that they may know fully industry's position on vital problems facing the nation.

Speakers who will address the convention have been chosen for their knowledge of important questions which industry is striving to solve, and among the topics to be discussed are such important questions as "The Relations of Government to the Manufacturers," "International Exchange," "An Immigration Policy," "The Open Shop in Relation to American Democracy" and "What are the Dangers if Inflation Continues?"

"Old Home Night," in which the charter members of the Association will regale their younger fellow members with tales of "the old days" will be held Monday night, and the convention will close with a "Silver Jubilee Banquet" on Wednesday evening.
